These talks are being held as part of the Sixth Form Careers Programme, but we are also particularly wishing to target pupils in the current Years 9, 10 & 11 who may choose or are actively involved in Art & Design GCSE. The talks (of approx 35 minutes) will be attractively presented with projected illustration and information and will also be aimed at parents who may be concerned about the job market in the creative fields, including Architecture.*

If, as a parent, you have doubts as to your daughters' creative prospects and if, as a pupil, you would like to be able to convince Mum & Dad that GCSE Art & Design will lead to something, please come along on Wednesday, 8 February at 17:00 in Roedean's Theatre where Ben Hackney will present a very informative talk indeed. It will be time well spent!
