UPPER FIVE GCSE TRIAL EXAMINATIONS

During the examination period, day girls should come to school as normal in the morning on days on which they have an examination, even if it is not until the afternoon. The revision facilities at school are excellent and staff are on hand to answer any last minute questions. However, should a day girl have no examinations on a given day, she need not attend school. Please let Mrs Swales in the School Office know, either by telephone 01273 667671 or by email: des@roedean.co.uk, if this is the case. Day girls are free to leave for home after their last examination of the day. However, they must report to the School Office before they leave and sign out from the house.
