DAY GIRL ABSENCE

If your daughter is a day girl and unable to come into school due to sickness, please contact Mrs Debbie Swales, Assistant School Secretary, on 01273 667671 or email des@roedean.co.uk. You do not have to contact your daughter's house as well, as the school office will forward any information to them. If your daughter is ill for more than one day, parents should inform Mrs Swales on the first day and every day thereafter until she is able to return to school. Please do not leave these messages with your daughter's tutor or senior tutor as they are often unable to pick up such messages until later in the morning due to teaching commitments.

Permission for known absences in advance can only be given by the relevant Senior Tutor. Their contact details are as follows:

Miss Carmel Carragher, Head of Sixth Form	cc@roedean.co.uk
Mrs Hazel Heron, Head of Key Stage 4	hh@roedean.co.uk
Mrs Sarah Bakhtiari, Head of Key Stage 3	sba@roedean.co.uk

We ask that you please give as much advance notice as possible for such absences. This is so we can ensure all relevant staff know and so that we can set work for your daughter, if appropriate. The girls' safety and welfare is our first priority and we must know where your daughter is at all times. We appreciate your help with this.
