INTERNAL SCHOOL EXAMINATIONS

Upper Three, Lower Four, Upper Four and Lower Five year groups

Internal summer examinations start in the week after half term. Please find attached a copy of the timetables for your reference. Day girls are expected to be in school at least until 16.00 hrs or until the end of their examination. Day girls must please remember to sign out of the house and the school office when they leave school.

If your daughter has extra-curricular activities, such as music or dance lessons, these will continue during the school's internal examinations period. As long as your daughter is not sitting an examination, she should attend these lessons as normal. If she is unable to attend a private lesson due to an examination, your daughter must tell her teacher.

For all information regarding examinations, please have a look at the new section on our website: <http://www.roedean.co.uk/exams/>, where you will find revision advice for students and parents plus details of the 2010 post-GCSE programme and timetables for the internal school examinations (coming soon). Other information will be posted as it becomes available.
