

Roedean

An independent 11-18 girls' day and boarding school in Brighton

Required as soon as possible

Lead School Counsellor

Roedean is an extraordinary school, sitting in the South Downs and overlooking the English Channel. However, it is not just the location but the strong academic focus, with a genuine belief in the importance of creativity and an all-round education, that makes Roedean unique.

Roedean is at a very exciting time in its development, with innovation, growth and the continued development of first-class facilities at the heart of our plans. We welcome your interest in being part of our continuing journey.

We are seeking a remarkable and visionary person to join our team. You will be experienced and well qualified (BACP accredited or equivalent), but most importantly, you will have the girls' aspirations and welfare at the heart of your vision. We are seeking someone who values kindness and generosity, who can build transformational relationships and who wants to make a difference to every individual, as an individual.

The successful candidate will have the enthusiasm, energy and experience to lead a high-quality counselling service to pupils experiencing a wide range of emotional problems. We are looking for someone who enjoys working with young people, and has an interest in them as individuals, ensuring that every pupil succeeds and gets the support and encouragement they need, as well as having the insight and communication skills to build strong relationships across the school. A clinical supervisor qualification would be desirable.

Hours: Minimum 16 hours per week, term time only.

Roedean is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. An enhanced DBS check is required for all successful applicants.
