

Roedean

An independent 11-18 girls' day and boarding school in Brighton

Required as soon as possible

EAL Teacher

Roedean is an extraordinary school, sitting in the South Downs and overlooking the English Channel. However, it is not just the location but the strong academic focus, with a genuine belief in the importance of creativity and an all-round education, that makes Roedean unique.

Roedean is at a very exciting time in its development, with innovation, growth and the development of first-class facilities at the heart of its plans. We welcome your interest in being part of our continuing journey.

We are seeking a remarkable and visionary person to join our team. You will be experienced and well qualified, but most importantly, you will have the girls' aspirations and welfare at the heart of your vision. We are seeking someone who values kindness and generosity, who can build transformational relationships and who wants to make a difference to every individual, as an individual.

This is a great opportunity for a highly skilled and enthusiastic Teacher of EAL with a passion for their subject and a commitment to ensure that every pupil flourishes.

Hours: Minimum of 0.6 fte contract with the possibility of full time. Some hours to take place evenings and weekends.

Roedean is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. An enhanced DBS check is required for all successful applicants.

Please download an application pack from our website (www.roedean.co.uk/Vacancies) or contact Louisa Butler, via vacancies@roedean.co.uk or 01273 667657.

Closing date: 9am, 1 November 2021. Due to the need to appoint quickly we reserve the right to interview and appoint at any time.
